9. Grading

The university shall award the letter grade to students based on the marks secured by them in both internal assessment and end-semester examinations taken together in the subjects registered. Each letter grade indicates a qualitative assessment of the student's performance and is associated with a specified number of grade points. The grading system along with the grade points for each grade, applicable to passed candidates is shown below. All passed candidate will be allotted a grade S, A, B, C or D according to the total marks scored by him/her.

Total %marks, rounded off to the nearest value scored by the passed candidate	Corresponding Grade Grade Points Allotted
90 – 100	S	10

60 – 69	C	7
50 - 59	D	6

If a candidate does not pass a subject as per the conditions given in Section (7), he/she will be assigned an Unsatisfactory grade 'U' irrespective of his/her total marks. If a student does not pass a subject in two attempts, the maximum grade he/she can get is 'D' when he/she passes the subject in any subsequent examination, whatever be the marks scored by him/her.

A student is considered to have completed a subject successfully and earned the credits if he/she secures a letter grade other than 'U' in that course. Letter grade 'U' has zero grade point and the candidate has to write the examination again to improve the grade. A student's performance is measured by the number of credits that he/she has earned and by the cumulative grade point average (CGPA) maintained by him/her. 10. Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) and Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA)

(a) A Semester Grade Point Average (SGPA) shall be computed for all the students for each semester, as follows:

$$SGPA = \frac{(C_1 G_1 + C_2 G_2 + C_3 G_3 + \dots + C_n G_n)}{(C_1 + C_2 + C_3 + \dots + C_n)}$$

where, n is the number of subjects registered during the semester, C_i is the number of credits allotted to ith subject as per the scheme, and G_i is the grade points corresponding to the grade awarded to the student for the subject.

(b) A Cumulative Grade Point Average (CGPA) shall be computed for all the students at the end of each semester by taking into consideration their performance in the present and the past semesters as follows:

$$CGPA = \frac{(C_1 G_1 + C_2 G_2 + C_3 G_3 + \dots + C_m G_m)}{(C_1 + C_2 + C_3 + \dots + C_m)}$$ where, m is the number of courses registered up to that semester, C_i is the number of credits allotted to ith subject as per the scheme, and G_i is the grade points corresponding to the grade awarded to the student for the subject. An up-to-date assessment of overall performance of a student is obtained by calculating CGPA. CGPA is weighted average of the grade points obtained in all the subjects registered by the students since he entered the MCA course.

(c) Both the SGPA and CGPA shall be rounded off to the second place of decimal and recorded as such for ease of presentation. Whenever the CGPAs are to be used for the purpose of determining the merit ranking in a group of students, only the rounded off values shall be made use of.

11. Improvement

Candidates shall not be allowed to improve the grade already obtained. However cancellation and reappearance will be permitted.

12. Attendance

A candidate shall be permitted to appear for the end-semester examinations only if he/she satisfies the following requirements:

The maximum limit of duty leave that can be granted to a student during a semester is 10% of the number of working hours in that semester.

Application for duty leave should be submitted to the Head of Institution/Head of MCA Department preferably before the duty is performed or within ten working days after returning from duty. If duty leave is sanctioned, the student shall meet the faculty members handling classes for him/her in that semester (within 2 weeks after returning from duty), and request them to mark duty leave granted in the record of attendance.

When the candidate registers for these extra electives, recommendation from the Head of Institution is to be attached. However, no student will be permitted to register for more than 5 electives during his course of study. A student has the option of taking less number of electives in any semester so as to suitably adjust his/her pace of study. Ex. A student can opt for studying only one elective in 4th semester, instead of two electives specified in the scheme. He/she will have to complete the sufficient number of electives in later semesters.

Minimum number of students for an elective shall be 15 and maximum 60. New electives may be introduced according to the needs of emerging fields in technology. The name of the elective and its syllabus should be approved by the university before the subject is offered as an elective.

9. The question paper shall be such that a student of desired ability, well prepared in the course, can reasonably be expected to answer it completely within the allotted time.
10. Information regarding permission to use data books, tables, charts, graphs etc. shall be mentioned in the question paper.
11. Abbreviations of all kinds shall be avoided, except those in special case.
12. Questions shall not be a mere reproduction from text books or other question papers.

13. Scheme for evaluation/ Answer key is mandatory for each question.

The question paper setters have to send the softcopy of the question papers along with the answer keys to the Chairman as instructed in the appointment letter.

15. No Question Paper Setter shall undertake or shall have undertaken private tuition in the course of his/her paper for any candidate who appears for the examination in the course concerned during the academic year immediately preceding the examination for which he/she accepts the appointment. No Question Paper Setter shall accept their appointment if their son/daughter/close relatives is a student for that Programme/Course.

Guidelines for preparing question papers

1. There are generally 3 types of questions:
 - a) Remember/ Understand – to assess Lower Order Abilities
 - b) Apply / Analyze – to assess Middle Order Abilities
 - c) Evaluate – to assess Higher Order Abilities
2. Relate the questions as directly as possible to the course outcomes being measured and the question must be a valid testing situation for the ability considered.
3. Avoid phrases like 'Discuss briefly', 'Explain briefly' etc. as these terms do not specify the exact limit of the answer expected and may be understood differently by different students. Also avoid use of phrases like 'Write all that you know about'.
4. Questions are to be formulated to make both the average as well as the ambitious students feel comfortable in meeting their expectations.
5. Questions should try to assess the ability to apply the knowledge acquired by the student in the course.
6. Questions should give the student a fair chance to demonstrate what they can do with the acquired knowledge.
7. The mark distribution shall be based on the length of answer, time required to answer and the difficulty level.
8. The questions shall deal with the application of knowledge to new situations, demanding the abilities of applying, analysing and evaluating.
9. Questions are to be formulated to meet the time frame, in a relaxed pace.
10. Should be free from all errors – credibility of the questions is to be ensured.
11. Ensure that there is no ambiguity about the answer.
12. Choices, if given, are to be comforting but not for compromising on the quality and should be from the same broad topic and not from different ones.
13. The distribution of questions according to the knowledge levels specified in the syllabus shall be ensured.

14. Avoid questions that are generic or outdated.

15. Innovation in question paper setting keeps the students interested in the course.

16. Check the questions for the time allotted and the number of pages allotted in the answer book.

PRINCIPAL
Engineering and Research Centre
Pampady, Thiruvilwamala, Thrissur Dt
Pin 680 597 Kerala

17. If the teacher can write the answer in " x " minutes, account for " 1.5x " minutes for the student.
18. All the pages shall be numbered. While numbering the pages the total number of pages shall also be indicated e.g. 1/3, 2/3, 3/3 where 1,2 etc. are the numbers of pages and 3 is the total number of pages.
19. Question Paper should not have any ambiguous figures, units or statements.
20. Proof read the text.
21. All the question papers shall be complete in respect of headings and directions to candidates, if any, and shall be in the form ready for uploading.

Preparing Scheme of Valuation/ Answer key

1. The Question Paper setters shall also prepare the answer key and scheme of valuation in such a way that the answer sheets valued by the first and second examiners would be able to award marks close enough and avoid a third valuation.
2. The total marks available for each question and each part of a question should be shown in the scheme and must tally with the marks shown on the question paper.
3. Each mark should reflect equal demand.
4. All marking should be positive, and as far as possible candidates should gain credit for valid answers and not lose credit for incorrect or irrelevant answers.
5. Allocate marks for each question and parts of a question, with a more detailed breakdown wherever necessary, based on the length of answer, time required to answer and the difficulty level.
6. Include as much details as possible (whichever is applicable) in the Scheme/Answer key such as,
 - Steps involved.
 - Intermediate results.
 - Essential formulae/equations.
 - Diagram, Graph with appropriate labels, flowcharts.
 - Numerical answers.
 - Essential information/clues/techniques/methods to be applied.
 - Substitution of appropriate numerical Values.
 - Units of parameters/results and
 - The mark allocation thereof to each.
